SENATORS TILT ON

Assailing Desertion of Bench, Senator Walsh Calls It a "Most Deadly Blow."

Hughes' notification day was observed in the Senate with a spirited attack on his desertion of the Supreme Court for a political candidacy by Senator Walsh of Montana, Administration leader, and an equally vigorous reply by Senator Townsend

Mr. Hughes' notification will take place in Carnegie Hall, New York, this hattan. place in Carnegie Hall, New York, this evening.

Declaring Hughes' action the "most deadly blow" ever directed at public confidence in the Supreme Court, Waish asserted that if he were elected no other case like that of the Danbury hatters would be decided but that the public would wonder what the ambition of some powerful member of the court had had to do with the decision. He opposed a constitutional amendment by Senator Thomas of Colorado designed to prevent such candidacies, however, because he said the coming election would be an effective referendum of the country's sentiment.

Answered By Townsend. Townsend answered that the attack was the effort of men desperate for any other argument, against a formidable opponent, against whom it never had been charged that as a court member he had swerved one hair-breadth from even-handed jus-hair-breadth from even-mainted tice.

Senator Walsh declared:
'Once let a justice of the Supreme Court resign to campaign for the Presidency, and it will never again determine a case like that of the Danbury hatters, without calling out a speculation as to how far the result was due to ambition, 'the last infirmity of noble minds.'

"Nominated To Save Party."

"There is no crisis in the nation's affairs. The crisis is in a political party, not in the nation. Justice Hughes was nominated to save his party, not the

"It is a compliment to Hughes," answered Senator Townsend, "that no word has been said to hint that he has ever swerved one hair-breadth from even-handed justice, or pandered to any class or public sentiment, but adhered to his duty.

"Hughes was nominated against the opposition of politicians, without having turned his hand.

"He resigned while it still appeared there might be two candidates against Wilson. He accepted because he believed an emergency exists, and it does exist and has existed for two years and a haif. Our President is entirely vacillating in conduct.

"At Peace Desnite President"

"At Peace Despite President." "We are at peace despite the President. If we had a President who had spoken the words of Americanism, we would not have been so close to the European war. We would not have been twice at war with Mexico.

"This attack today was made to meet the political exigencies of the hour—because Hugheh is a formidable candidate—because no other word can be found to Final actalis for paying the men for their July services in camp were completed at pay muster today. This ceremony consisted of a close check on every man in camp, and a written record of what each soldier is doing either in his company or on special detail.

Major W. P. French, depot quartermaster at Fort Myer, said today that if all the payrolls, which have been signed by the enlisted men, proved correct he would begin paying off tomorrow. The soldiers will be paid for the entire month of July and for every day in June for Although Capt. Horace P. Hobbs said recruits for the First Separate Battalion to the border this week, he was unable to state when any other organizations would leave.

Captain Hobbs said he wanted to send the 100 colored recruits to the border with the Third Regiment or the detachment of mounted organizations of the militia.

Reports received by Captain Hobbs at the mobilization camp today showed that the Third Regiment still needs fifty-eight men, while about twenty-five will be required to fill up the two batteries of artillery. Troop A, of the First Separate Cavalry, has its full number of men.

Expect Necessary Recruits.

Expect Necessary Recruits.

Capt. E. W. Fullam, adjutant of the Third Regiment, said he believed this afternoon's parade would produce all the neded recruits.

Captain Fullam said every recruit enlisted from now on would be a positive gain for the regiment as all of the men with dependents have been discharged and practically no enlistments would expire during the month of August.

Although about 275 recruits have been enlisted in the militia since President Wilson issued his call, it has taken that number of men to fill up the gaps caused by the recall of the Navy Yard men and discharges because of dependents and expiration of enlistments.

The result has been that the regiment has practically stood still, with the incoming men balancing the outgoing men.

Line Crossing Williamsburg Bridge Is Idle, Causing Great Congestion of Crowds Going to Work in M anhattan.

NEW YORK, July $1.—The street car strike, which started in the Bronx last week and yesterday tied up the Third avenue surface lines in Manhattan, spread to Brooklyn today.

The line crossing the Williamsburg bridge was idle, causing great congestion of crowds going to work in Manhattan.

Strike officials today sent the word along that their fight must be a peaceful one. They declared the public is with them as evidenced by the few who ride even on cars manned by police inen. They say they rely on the public to win their fight for them.

A recapitulation of cars running on the affected lines given out today at police headquarters asid only $7 out of $12 cars are operating in the Bronx.

Police of the city are mobilized at all the Bronx to be understood as applying equally well in New York city.

MOTHER SHAVED HIM. OLD RAZOR SLIPPED

Youth Faces Death From a Severed Artery.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 21.-William Cochran, of Braddock, Pa., may die as a result of permitting his mother to barber shop Saturday night and in or-der to attend church Sunday morning, he faced the necessity of making up for his neglect. He had an old-fashioned razor, but never tried to use it.
"I believe I could shave you," suggested his mother. "Try it," responded Cochran.

Cochran.
Operations proceeded with fair success till Mrs. Cochran, overconfident, tried the razor on the back of Willam's neck, The blade slipped as she was making a downward stroke and cut a deep gash in the son's arm, severing an artery. Two physicians, who were summoned, say Cochran's condition is critical.

TRADE UNION CHIEFS EXEMPT FROM WAR

Limited Number Free From Service at Front.

LONDON, July 31 .- A limited number of trade union officials are to be ex empted from military service, the Daily Chronicle says, under an arrangement which has been arrived at between the parliamentary committee of the Trade Union Congress and the government committee.

In the coming to this agreement it is understood that the government committee was influenced by the important nature of the war work which the trade unions are rendering to the state.

In London the number of forms applied for by married men who wish to appeal for exemption or postponement amounts to 24,000 in all.

It is not known how many claims will come before the city tribunal, but the number is believed to be very large.
